

EXISTING

3D VISUAL

FINISHED

Overview

We were delighted to be approached by The Parkgate Hotel to transform an underused storeroom into a stylish and functional boardroom complete with hospitality facilities. The goal was to create a space that seamlessly blended with the hotel's existing interior – from woodwork and wall coverings to panelling, bulkheads, and flooring. All work was carefully carried out with minimal disruption, ensuring the hotel's daily operations continued smoothly throughout the transformation. Staff or customer.